

Accurate Wrist Watches

THE late war created an enormous demand for these sensible timekeepers. Manufacturers—to their credit—have been making rapid strides in increasing the dependability and accuracy of ladies' wrist watches.

Our stock comprises leading makes and carries the personal assurance and guarantee of telling the time truthfully.

The size, shape and kind you want, and you will surely find here.

OUR WATCHES ARE GIFTS THAT LAST.

FERGUSON'S

Franklin Square
Where All Cars Stop

CELEBRATE THEIR FORTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Polio and Mrs. Myron O. Morgan of Rogers avenue celebrate the 40th anniversary of their wedding on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan were married in Old Mystic on Dec. 14, 1881. Mrs. Morgan's maiden name being Miss Florence Church. Practically all of their married life has been spent in this city. Polio Morgan became a superintendant on the local police force in 1905 and after years later was made a regular patrolman, in which capacity he has served faithfully for 21 years.

State Teachers' Meeting Decided

The directors of the state teachers' association met in the capitol at Hartford Saturday to fix the date and to discuss the program for the annual meeting of the association. Levi T. Garrison of Willimantic, president of the association, presided. It was decided to hold the annual meeting in Bridgeport, Feb. 2 and 3. The directors made suggestions for the program for the meeting, but no definite action was taken. It was decided to leave the preparation of a program to the president Garrison.

State Banquet in Hartford

The banquet of the State College freshmen which was to have been held here Sunday night but was transferred to Hartford after the clash between non-athletes and athletes in New York Saturday night was held at the Hotel Bond without interruption as five Hartford non-athletes were stationed at strategic positions to see that there was no trouble.

TO STOP COUGHING AT NIGHT

When anyone is suffering from a bronchial affection or has a cough that lingers on, and keeps him from sleeping, the loss of sleep tends to weaken the sufferer and gives more serious the danger of a serious illness. For this reason, it is important to get relief as soon as possible. For this reason, it is important to get relief as soon as possible. For this reason, it is important to get relief as soon as possible.

THE UNITED STATES CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION

The United States civil service commission announces an examination for photographic transfer, male, age 20 to 45, in the weather bureau department of agriculture, Washington, D. C., at $1,200 a year.

Irish linen handkerchiefs

Irish linen handkerchiefs are especially appropriate for Christmas gifts this year and Kimball's Textile Shop has a large stock on hand.

A Norwich visit at the time of the governor's ball

A Norwich visit at the time of the governor's ball, Miss Marjorie Sykes Lake, won first prize in the saddle horse class, riding Sergeant Frank B. Anlin's Tipperary, Thursday evening at the Hartford Horse Show.

The W. C. U. state treasurer

The W. C. U. state treasurer, Nellie Rudd Arnold, reports that 72 unions paid full dollar dues, and 44 unions paid all or almost all of state fund and three of this year's dues.

The first meeting of the Mystic Community Chorus

The first meeting of the Mystic Community Chorus with its new director, Charles D. Geer of Norwich, held at the Community house, proved very enthusiastic and has resulted in other singers becoming members of the chorus.

Beginner Jan. 2, Rev. A. Earl Kernahan

Beginner Jan. 2, Rev. A. Earl Kernahan of Boston, is to conduct a two weeks evangelistic campaign in Trinity Methodist church. All Methodist churches of Norwich are invited to unite for the series of meetings.

Universal sale and supper Wednesday

Universal sale and supper Wednesday, Dec. 14, afternoon and evening. Fancy work, domestic articles, children's table, cake, candy, ice cream. Admission free. Supper served at 5.30 and 6.30, 50 cents—adv.

Now that the taxpayers of the city

Now that the taxpayers of the city of Rockville have voted in favor of the purchase of a motor-driven fire pump and a motor-driven hook and ladder truck, the fire committee is making a thorough study of the different makes.

Edward Lallman of Stafford

Edward Lallman of Stafford has bought from Mrs. J. G. Dunming of Springfield the old Baker homestead at North Somers, where he is clearing the ground and the owner on the state road for the erection of a shop and garage.

The Connecticut Prison Association

The Connecticut Prison Association has issued a request to the various Christian Endeavor unions throughout the state for Christmas cards to be sent through the association to the prisoners in the various state penal institutions.

A 253 Pantheon sterling silver set

A 253 Pantheon sterling silver set, presented Gen. Armando Diaz, commander of the Italian army, at Providence, Saturday, by the citizens of Providence, Rhode Island, was manufactured by the Meriden International Silver company, which has a branch in Norwich.

New York papers noted Monday

New York papers noted Monday a "talking" Chinese buffalo and a number of small mammals new to science, captured by the American Museum of Natural History expedition, of which Roy Chapman Andrews is leader. Mr. Andrews' wife (Yvette Borup) who is with him, has visited Mrs. B. C. Case, in Norwich.

An authority states that a ton

An authority states that a ton of diamonds is worth $250,000,000. Remember this and don't pay a cent more.

PERSONALS

John A. Dunn left Monday night for Florida where he will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chamberlin have moved from Westford to Jewett City.

Mrs. E. P. Ely left Old Lyme Monday for New York for a few days before going to Colorado to spend the winter with relatives.

Patients discharged from New London hospitals Monday included Mrs. Leslie Gray and infant of Norwich; also Mrs. Floyd Christian, Norwich.

Daniel J. Sweeney of 33 Washington street, after a ten days' illness, has returned to his duties as clerk in the office of the American Express company.

A dinner was given at New London Saturday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Lincoln, formerly of Willimantic on their twentieth wedding anniversary.

George W. Armstrong has returned to his home on Prospect street after spending last week in New York attending the sessions of the annual meeting of the A. S. M. E.

Walter H. Rogers, of Union street, after a ten days' illness, has returned to his duties as clerk in the office of the American Express company.

Mrs. William Morrill of Stafford Springs, formerly of Norwich, has arrived in Pasadena and will soon leave there for Santa Catalina Island, where a friend has invited her to pass the winter.

Block Island proved a very good supporter of the Red Cross. On the island 214 memberships were obtained in a population slightly exceeding 1000.

A double page picture of leading members of the Rotary club, in the Hartford Sunday Courier, included a cut of Robert B. Brewster, a native of Norwich.

There is an effort to get overseas Christmas mail off to catch steamers leaving New York Thursday, that it may reach its destination in time for the holiday.

Annual meeting of Sacchar Chapter No. 57, O. E. S., tonight at 7.45. Elect new officers—adv.

County's board of selectmen has appointed Byron W. Hall collector of personal taxes for the second district and Mrs. Ethel M. Frederickson for the first district.

Several local French residents will go to Hartford today (Tuesday) when Mattheu Ferdinand Bouché (Jack) will arrive at 38 minutes to that city, arriving at noon.

Tutill Brothers, who have had two craft in the scallop industry at Stonington the past season, have given up and have gone to Greenvale, L. I. to remain until spring.

At Moosup, J. Orville Main has a courageous red ramble rose bush which has set forth six clusters of fresh green leaves, although it stands on the north side of the house.

An acceptable Christmas remembrance, 50 calling cards printed for sale at the Bulletin Co.—adv.

James MacGregor of Providence, professional at the Miconian Club, club at Watch Hill for a number of years, is now engaged at the Shore Acres club in Illinois.

It was on December 13, 1789, that Dartmouth College was incorporated—a college which originated at Lebanon, New Hampshire, and was named after Rev. Eleazar Wheelock.

During Monday, Rev. Dr. David A. Pitt, pastor of the Central Baptist church, was in New Haven at a meeting of the state stewardship committee of the church.

A Crystal Lake correspondent mentions that Oropo Richardson, who has been visiting friends in Norwich, has been to Mrs. Perlin Dimmock's, where he has been for a while.

St. James' lodge No. 23, F. and A. M., was the third degree at Masonic temple at 7.30. Lecture illustrated with slides—adv.

Certain shoe shoppers took advantage of the rainy Monday, finding an agreeable absence of crowds. While there was more leisure for special attention than during an ordinary day.

Members of Hathaway-Miller Post of Ellington in charge of arrangements for a dance to be given in town hall on Monday night, Dec. 13, at 8 o'clock.

Rev. Carl Goehring, Clyde Condit, Harold Patric and Joseph MacVehish.

This year's Connecticut tobacco crop is very good, but growers in some towns state that the weight is not in the plants this year and that the crop is of the best quality it is not so heavy as heretofore.

The United States civil service commission announces an examination for photographic transfer, male, age 20 to 45, in the weather bureau department of agriculture, Washington, D. C., at $1,200 a year.

Irish linen handkerchiefs are especially appropriate for Christmas gifts this year and Kimball's Textile Shop has a large stock on hand.

A Norwich visit at the time of the governor's ball, Miss Marjorie Sykes Lake, won first prize in the saddle horse class, riding Sergeant Frank B. Anlin's Tipperary, Thursday evening at the Hartford Horse Show.

The W. C. U. state treasurer, Nellie Rudd Arnold, reports that 72 unions paid full dollar dues, and 44 unions paid all or almost all of state fund and three of this year's dues.

The first meeting of the Mystic Community Chorus with its new director, Charles D. Geer of Norwich, held at the Community house, proved very enthusiastic and has resulted in other singers becoming members of the chorus.

Beginner Jan. 2, Rev. A. Earl Kernahan of Boston, is to conduct a two weeks evangelistic campaign in Trinity Methodist church. All Methodist churches of Norwich are invited to unite for the series of meetings.

Universal sale and supper Wednesday, Dec. 14, afternoon and evening. Fancy work, domestic articles, children's table, cake, candy, ice cream. Admission free. Supper served at 5.30 and 6.30, 50 cents—adv.

Now that the taxpayers of the city of Rockville have voted in favor of the purchase of a motor-driven fire pump and a motor-driven hook and ladder truck, the fire committee is making a thorough study of the different makes.

Edward Lallman of Stafford has bought from Mrs. J. G. Dunming of Springfield the old Baker homestead at North Somers, where he is clearing the ground and the owner on the state road for the erection of a shop and garage.

The Connecticut Prison Association has issued a request to the various Christian Endeavor unions throughout the state for Christmas cards to be sent through the association to the prisoners in the various state penal institutions.

A 253 Pantheon sterling silver set, presented Gen. Armando Diaz, commander of the Italian army, at Providence, Saturday, by the citizens of Providence, Rhode Island, was manufactured by the Meriden International Silver company, which has a branch in Norwich.

New York papers noted Monday a "talking" Chinese buffalo and a number of small mammals new to science, captured by the American Museum of Natural History expedition, of which Roy Chapman Andrews is leader. Mr. Andrews' wife (Yvette Borup) who is with him, has visited Mrs. B. C. Case, in Norwich.

An authority states that a ton of diamonds is worth $250,000,000. Remember this and don't pay a cent more.

John A. Dunn left Monday night for Florida where he will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chamberlin have moved from Westford to Jewett City.

Mrs. E. P. Ely left Old Lyme Monday for New York for a few days before going to Colorado to spend the winter with relatives.

Patients discharged from New London hospitals Monday included Mrs. Leslie Gray and infant of Norwich; also Mrs. Floyd Christian, Norwich.

Daniel J. Sweeney of 33 Washington street, after a ten days' illness, has returned to his duties as clerk in the office of the American Express company.

A dinner was given at New London Saturday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Lincoln, formerly of Willimantic on their twentieth wedding anniversary.

George W. Armstrong has returned to his home on Prospect street after spending last week in New York attending the sessions of the annual meeting of the A. S. M. E.

Walter H. Rogers, of Union street, after a ten days' illness, has returned to his duties as clerk in the office of the American Express company.

Mrs. William Morrill of Stafford Springs, formerly of Norwich, has arrived in Pasadena and will soon leave there for Santa Catalina Island, where a friend has invited her to pass the winter.

Block Island proved a very good supporter of the Red Cross. On the island 214 memberships were obtained in a population slightly exceeding 1000.

A double page picture of leading members of the Rotary club, in the Hartford Sunday Courier, included a cut of Robert B. Brewster, a native of Norwich.

There is an effort to get overseas Christmas mail off to catch steamers leaving New York Thursday, that it may reach its destination in time for the holiday.

Annual meeting of Sacchar Chapter No. 57, O. E. S., tonight at 7.45. Elect new officers—adv.

County's board of selectmen has appointed Byron W. Hall collector of personal taxes for the second district and Mrs. Ethel M. Frederickson for the first district.

Several local French residents will go to Hartford today (Tuesday) when Mattheu Ferdinand Bouché (Jack) will arrive at 38 minutes to that city, arriving at noon.

Tutill Brothers, who have had two craft in the scallop industry at Stonington the past season, have given up and have gone to Greenvale, L. I. to remain until spring.

At Moosup, J. Orville Main has a courageous red ramble rose bush which has set forth six clusters of fresh green leaves, although it stands on the north side of the house.

An acceptable Christmas remembrance, 50 calling cards printed for sale at the Bulletin Co.—adv.

James MacGregor of Providence, professional at the Miconian Club, club at Watch Hill for a number of years, is now engaged at the Shore Acres club in Illinois.

It was on December 13, 1789, that Dartmouth College was incorporated—a college which originated at Lebanon, New Hampshire, and was named after Rev. Eleazar Wheelock.

During Monday, Rev. Dr. David A. Pitt, pastor of the Central Baptist church, was in New Haven at a meeting of the state stewardship committee of the church.

A Crystal Lake correspondent mentions that Oropo Richardson, who has been visiting friends in Norwich, has been to Mrs. Perlin Dimmock's, where he has been for a while.

St. James' lodge No. 23, F. and A. M., was the third degree at Masonic temple at 7.30. Lecture illustrated with slides—adv.

Certain shoe shoppers took advantage of the rainy Monday, finding an agreeable absence of crowds. While there was more leisure for special attention than during an ordinary day.

Members of Hathaway-Miller Post of Ellington in charge of arrangements for a dance to be given in town hall on Monday night, Dec. 13, at 8 o'clock.

Rev. Carl Goehring, Clyde Condit, Harold Patric and Joseph MacVehish.

This year's Connecticut tobacco crop is very good, but growers in some towns state that the weight is not in the plants this year and that the crop is of the best quality it is not so heavy as heretofore.

The United States civil service commission announces an examination for photographic transfer, male, age 20 to 45, in the weather bureau department of agriculture, Washington, D. C., at $1,200 a year.

Irish linen handkerchiefs are especially appropriate for Christmas gifts this year and Kimball's Textile Shop has a large stock on hand.

A Norwich visit at the time of the governor's ball, Miss Marjorie Sykes Lake, won first prize in the saddle horse class, riding Sergeant Frank B. Anlin's Tipperary, Thursday evening at the Hartford Horse Show.

The W. C. U. state treasurer, Nellie Rudd Arnold, reports that 72 unions paid full dollar dues, and 44 unions paid all or almost all of state fund and three of this year's dues.

The first meeting of the Mystic Community Chorus with its new director, Charles D. Geer of Norwich, held at the Community house, proved very enthusiastic and has resulted in other singers becoming members of the chorus.

Beginner Jan. 2, Rev. A. Earl Kernahan of Boston, is to conduct a two weeks evangelistic campaign in Trinity Methodist church. All Methodist churches of Norwich are invited to unite for the series of meetings.

Universal sale and supper Wednesday, Dec. 14, afternoon and evening. Fancy work, domestic articles, children's table, cake, candy, ice cream. Admission free. Supper served at 5.30 and 6.30, 50 cents—adv.

Now that the taxpayers of the city of Rockville have voted in favor of the purchase of a motor-driven fire pump and a motor-driven hook and ladder truck, the fire committee is making a thorough study of the different makes.

Edward Lallman of Stafford has bought from Mrs. J. G. Dunming of Springfield the old Baker homestead at North Somers, where he is clearing the ground and the owner on the state road for the erection of a shop and garage.

The Connecticut Prison Association has issued a request to the various Christian Endeavor unions throughout the state for Christmas cards to be sent through the association to the prisoners in the various state penal institutions.

A 253 Pantheon sterling silver set, presented Gen. Armando Diaz, commander of the Italian army, at Providence, Saturday, by the citizens of Providence, Rhode Island, was manufactured by the Meriden International Silver company, which has a branch in Norwich.

New York papers noted Monday a "talking" Chinese buffalo and a number of small mammals new to science, captured by the American Museum of Natural History expedition, of which Roy Chapman Andrews is leader. Mr. Andrews' wife (Yvette Borup) who is with him, has visited Mrs. B. C. Case, in Norwich.

An authority states that a ton of diamonds is worth $250,000,000. Remember this and don't pay a cent more.

John A. Dunn left Monday night for Florida where he will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chamberlin have moved from Westford to Jewett City.

Mrs. E. P. Ely left Old Lyme Monday for New York for a few days before going to Colorado to spend the winter with relatives.

Patients discharged from New London hospitals Monday included Mrs. Leslie Gray and infant of Norwich; also Mrs. Floyd Christian, Norwich.

Daniel J. Sweeney of 33 Washington street, after a ten days' illness, has returned to his duties as clerk in the office of the American Express company.

A dinner was given at New London Saturday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Lincoln, formerly of Willimantic on their twentieth wedding anniversary.

George W. Armstrong has returned to his home on Prospect street after spending last week in New York attending the sessions of the annual meeting of the A. S. M. E.

Walter H. Rogers, of Union street, after a ten days' illness, has returned to his duties as clerk in the office of the American Express company.

Mrs. William Morrill of Stafford Springs, formerly of Norwich, has arrived in Pasadena and will soon leave there for Santa Catalina Island, where a friend has invited her to pass the winter.

Block Island proved a very good supporter of the Red Cross. On the island 214 memberships were obtained in a population slightly exceeding 1000.

A double page picture of leading members of the Rotary club, in the Hartford Sunday Courier, included a cut of Robert B. Brewster, a native of Norwich.

There is an effort to get overseas Christmas mail off to catch steamers leaving New York Thursday, that it may reach its destination in time for the holiday.

Annual meeting of Sacchar Chapter No. 57, O. E. S., tonight at 7.45. Elect new officers—adv.

County's board of selectmen has appointed Byron W. Hall collector of personal taxes for the second district and Mrs. Ethel M. Frederickson for the first district.

Several local French residents will go to Hartford today (Tuesday) when Mattheu Ferdinand Bouché (Jack) will arrive at 38 minutes to that city, arriving at noon.

Tutill Brothers, who have had two craft in the scallop industry at Stonington the past season, have given up and have gone to Greenvale, L. I. to remain until spring.

At Moosup, J. Orville Main has a courageous red ramble rose bush which has set forth six clusters of fresh green leaves, although it stands on the north side of the house.

An acceptable Christmas remembrance, 50 calling cards printed for sale at the Bulletin Co.—adv.

James MacGregor of Providence, professional at the Miconian Club, club at Watch Hill for a number of years, is now engaged at the Shore Acres club in Illinois.

It was on December 13, 1789, that Dartmouth College was incorporated—a college which originated at Lebanon, New Hampshire, and was named after Rev. Eleazar Wheelock.

During Monday, Rev. Dr. David A. Pitt, pastor of the Central Baptist church, was in New Haven at a meeting of the state stewardship committee of the church.

A Crystal Lake correspondent mentions that Oropo Richardson, who has been visiting friends in Norwich, has been to Mrs. Perlin Dimmock's, where he has been for a while.

St. James' lodge No. 23, F. and A. M., was the third degree at Masonic temple at 7.30. Lecture illustrated with slides—adv.

Certain shoe shoppers took advantage of the rainy Monday, finding an agreeable absence of crowds. While there was more leisure for special attention than during an ordinary day.

Members of Hathaway-Miller Post of Ellington in charge of arrangements for a dance to be given in town hall on Monday night, Dec. 13, at 8 o'clock.

Rev. Carl Goehring, Clyde Condit, Harold Patric and Joseph MacVehish.

This year's Connecticut tobacco crop is very good, but growers in some towns state that the weight is not in the plants this year and that the crop is of the best quality it is not so heavy as heretofore.

The United States civil service commission announces an examination for photographic transfer, male, age 20 to 45, in the weather bureau department of agriculture, Washington, D. C., at $1,200 a year.

Irish linen handkerchiefs are especially appropriate for Christmas gifts this year and Kimball's Textile Shop has a large stock on hand.

A Norwich visit at the time of the governor's ball, Miss Marjorie Sykes Lake, won first prize in the saddle horse class, riding Sergeant Frank B. Anlin's Tipperary, Thursday evening at the Hartford Horse Show.

The W. C. U. state treasurer, Nellie Rudd Arnold, reports that 72 unions paid full dollar dues, and 44 unions paid all or almost all of state fund and three of this year's dues.

The first meeting of the Mystic Community Chorus with its new director, Charles D. Geer of Norwich, held at the Community house, proved very enthusiastic and has resulted in other singers becoming members of the chorus.

Beginner Jan. 2, Rev. A. Earl Kernahan of Boston, is to conduct a two weeks evangelistic campaign in Trinity Methodist church. All Methodist churches of Norwich are invited to unite for the series of meetings.

Universal sale and supper Wednesday, Dec. 14, afternoon and evening. Fancy work, domestic articles, children's table, cake, candy, ice cream. Admission free. Supper served at 5.30 and 6.30, 50 cents—adv.

Now that the taxpayers of the city of Rockville have voted in favor of the purchase of a motor-driven fire pump and a motor-driven hook and ladder truck, the fire committee is making a thorough study of the different makes.

Edward Lallman of Stafford has bought from Mrs. J. G. Dunming of Springfield the old Baker homestead at North Somers, where he is clearing the ground and the owner on the state road for the erection of a shop and garage.

The Connecticut Prison Association has issued a request to the various Christian Endeavor unions throughout the state for Christmas cards to be sent through the association to the prisoners in the various state penal institutions.

A 253 Pantheon sterling silver set, presented Gen. Armando Diaz, commander of the Italian army, at Providence, Saturday, by the citizens of Providence, Rhode Island, was manufactured by the Meriden International Silver company, which has a branch in Norwich.

New York papers noted Monday a "talking" Chinese buffalo and a number of small mammals new to science, captured by the American Museum of Natural History expedition, of which Roy Chapman Andrews is leader. Mr. Andrews' wife (Yvette Borup) who is with him, has visited Mrs. B. C. Case, in Norwich.

An authority states that a ton of diamonds is worth $250,000,000. Remember this and don't pay a cent more.

John A. Dunn left Monday night for Florida where he will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chamberlin have moved from Westford to Jewett City.

Mrs. E. P. Ely left Old Lyme Monday for New York for a few days before going to Colorado to spend the winter with relatives.

Patients discharged from New London hospitals Monday included Mrs. Leslie Gray and infant of Norwich; also Mrs. Floyd Christian, Norwich.

Daniel J. Sweeney of 33 Washington street, after a ten days' illness, has returned to his duties as clerk in the office of the American Express company.

A dinner was given at New London Saturday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Lincoln, formerly of Willimantic on their twentieth wedding anniversary.

George W. Armstrong has returned to his home on Prospect street after spending last week in New York attending the sessions of the annual meeting of the A. S. M. E.

Walter H. Rogers, of Union street, after a ten days' illness, has returned to his duties as clerk in the office of the American Express company.

Mrs. William Morrill of Stafford Springs, formerly of Norwich, has arrived in Pasadena and will soon leave there for Santa Catalina Island, where a friend has invited her to pass the winter.

Block Island proved a very good supporter of the Red Cross. On the island 214 memberships were obtained in a population slightly exceeding 1000.

A double page picture of leading members of the Rotary club, in the Hartford Sunday Courier, included a cut of Robert B. Brewster, a native of Norwich.

There is an effort to get overseas Christmas mail off to catch steamers leaving New York Thursday, that it may reach its destination in time for the holiday.

Annual meeting of Sacchar Chapter No. 57, O. E. S., tonight at 7.45. Elect new officers—adv.

County's board of selectmen has appointed Byron W. Hall collector of personal taxes for the second district and Mrs. Ethel M. Frederickson for the first district.

Several local French residents will go to Hartford today (Tuesday) when Mattheu Ferdinand Bouché (Jack) will arrive at 38 minutes to that city, arriving at noon.